

SCENE IN THE News

HEADLINES FROM THIS MONTH'S ESSEX NEWS

THE ZEN STUDIO

On Saturday 17th December, The Zen Studio in Loughton hosted a fun Christmas Party for existing and prospective clients. It was a full afternoon of activities, showcasing the new and exciting classes now available at the studio.

Adults and children were treated to Lion Dancing and Kungfu, Yoga, Zumba and Cha Cha Ballroom demonstrations as well as free beauty treatments to highlight all that the Zen Studio now has to offer.

COSMETIC NEWS

Frances Furlong RGN Bsc Inp has been an aesthetic nurse for 14 years. Two years ago she made the brave decision to become an independent mobile practitioner and set up her own company, Perfect Skin. The company has gone from strength to strength, with 8 locations mainly in Essex. On 30th November, Frances won 2nd place, out of 176 mobile practitioners, for the prestigious Cosmetic News award, which was determined by votes from clients and other industry professionals including a mystery shopper.

COME DINE WITH THE MAYOR

The Mayor of Redbridge hosted a "Dine With The Mayor" dinner at Woodford Green's Adriatico Restaurant last month in aid of Multiple Sclerosis and Newbridge School. The Mayor was joined by a number of Essex dignitaries and friends who all enjoyed a fine Italian meal and raffle with proceeds going towards two great causes.

CHICHI BOUTIQUE

Chichi Boutique in Loughton held a champagne weekend on 17th and 18th December with free bubbly & mince pies, lots of special offers and a free discount lucky dip. Shoppers with the winning tickets received up to 50% off any purchase made on the day across brands stocked at the boutique including Plein Sud, Ingenuie, Dictionary and FTC Cashmere.

DO YOU HAVE A STORY FOR US? WE WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU
E-MAIL OUR NEWSDESK TODAY: NEWSDESK@SCENEMAGAZINES.COM