“

I have always been very serious about my fitness training which lead me into the fitness modelling industry. Since competing as a fitness model I personally find the most important part when performing on stage or doing a photo shoot is to have flawless skin.

Being a judge in the past myself, one of the main criteria's is to have a healthy facial glow. This gives me confidence and allows me to perform better as a result. When exercising and dieting to the extreme to achieve the right look on stage there are a lot of nutritional sacrifices that have to be made, which can cause my skin to look dull, sunken, gaunt, dry and tired looking. This is due to the lack of vitamins in my body.

I have been seeing Frances for 5 years now and I can honestly say her work is always first class. She provided me with a bespoke skin regime which helps me with my skin concerns. I am currently having a course of derma rollers combined with Mesotherapy Vitamin injections for skin repair and tightening. Together with my Muscle Relaxing injections I notice that my skin looks glowing, fresh and radiant.

Frances always provides an elite service and will make you feel amazing inside and out. I cannot thank Frances enough for giving me such confidence and having the perfect skin I have always dreamed of.
